

Kali Wilson Beyah

Kali Wilson Beyah is Managing Director-Global Talent Management at Delta Air Lines, Inc., where she is responsible for developing and executing strategies to support and grow Delta's people, capabilities and culture. Kali leads the teams responsible for corporate learning and development, leadership development, performance management, selections and assessments to transform talent management for Deltas 80,000 people.

Kali previously served as Assistant General Counsel at Delta, handling government affairs, litigation and regulatory matters. Prior to joining Delta, she was a litigation partner with Kilpatrick Stockton LLP (Kilpatrick Townsend). She has been named a Georgia Super Lawyers Rising Star and one of the Atlanta Business Chronicle's 40 under 40.

In the community, Kali currently serves on the Boards of Directors for the Georgia Chapter of the International Women's Forum and the Atlanta Women's Foundation. She has also served on the boards of economic development alliances and a community improvement district.

Kali attended Florida A&M University and Vanderbilt University School of Law. She and her husband live in Southwest Atlanta with their two energetic, authority-questioning children.
