

Lisa Robinson

Lisa Robinson, is the President of OnBoard where she is focused on building relationships with the Atlanta community, steward the OnBoard mission, and oversee the operations. She recently joined OnBoard as president bringing her non-profit experience, enthusiasm for the mission, and demonstrated success throughout her career to lead OnBoard in the continuing efforts to achieve the mission of increasing the number of women in executive leadership roles and on corporate boards.

Lisa's career spans the non-profit and for-profit sectors, working with start-ups through to Forbes 100 companies, primarily in fashion and textiles before her work with non-profits. Since 2001, she has focused on fundraising – building and leading teams, raising funds, and helping other non-profits do the same. She led fundraising at Marist School, Visiting Nurse/Hospice Atlanta, and most recently as the VP of Philanthropy at the Woodruff Arts Center.

Lisa is also a Partner at Bell Oaks Executive Search, where she leverages her career experiences with corporations and non-profits to give a unique perspective advising clients on talent acquisition. She is a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Georgia Board of Directors where she chairs the development committee; is a Court Appointed Special Advocate; serves on the Executive Board of the Georgia Planned Giving Council; serves on the development committee of the Catholic Foundation of North Georgia; and was recently Gift Chair for her alma mater, Miss Porter's School.

A native of Chicago, Lisa graduated with a degree in music from Scripps College of the Claremont Colleges in CA. Lisa is married to Will Slade and has two daughters.
