

Duriya Farooqui brings more than two decades of leadership experience in business transformation, innovation, and economic development. Ms. Farooqui is a Board Director of Intercontinental Hotels Group (NYSE: IHG), Tribe Capital Growth Corp I (NASDAQ: ATVCU) and Intercontinental Exchange (NYSE: ICE). She also serves on the boards of ICE NGX and NYSE, which are subsidiaries of ICE. In addition, she co-chairs the NYSE Board Advisory Council that is committed to advancing diversity on public company boards.

Until 2020, Ms. Farooqui was President of Supply Chain Innovation at Georgia Pacific, leading an organization where over 40 companies came together to solve supply chain challenges through rapid experimentation, digital technology and collaboration.

Previously, Ms. Farooqui was Executive Director of Atlanta Committee for Progress (ACP), a coalition of leading CEOs and the Mayor, focused on critical economic development investments in Atlanta. Before joining ACP in 2016, Ms. Farooqui was a principal at Bain & Company. Prior to Bain, Ms. Farooqui spent six years in city government and served as the Chief Operating Officer for the City of Atlanta through 2013. She led all operating departments of the city spanning a $2B budget, 7000 employees as well as the busiest airport in the world. At the start of her career, she worked with the Center for International Development at Harvard University, The World Bank, and Center for Global Development.

Ms. Farooqui earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and Mathematics from Hampshire College, and a Master of Public Administration and International Development from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. Active in civic leadership, she is a Trustee of Agnes Scott College, a Governing Board Member of the Woodruff Arts Center, and on The Carter Center Board of Councilors.